

Michael S. Forsman

Mr. Forsman is a Tulsa native. His practice areas include commercial banking, mergers, acquisitions and divestitures, the legal and business issues arising in oil and gas related transactions including working interest and mineral acquisitions, oil field service companies, manufacturers, leasing companies, value enhancement and structuring advice for proposed transactions, real estate related transactions including ranch acquisition, related financing and sales, bank loan work outs for both lenders and borrowers.

Mr. Forsman acts as special counsel for a number of his clients and in that role assists in the selection and retention of appropriate legal counsel for particular matters affecting the client.

Mr. Forsman serves on the Board of Directors of a Tulsa bank, is a life member of the Board of Directors of the Tulsa Boy's Home, has served as past president of the Boy's Home Board of Directors and its Foundation, and is a director of the Daniel K Thorne Foundation. Mr. Forsman is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell.

Contact Information

mforsman@bme-law.com

p: 918-583-1777 f: 918-585-2444

Education

Juris Doctor, University of Oklahoma, 1971

Bachelors of Business Administration, University of Oklahoma, 1967

Bar Admissions

Tulsa County Bar Association

Oklahoma Bar Association