

Sheridan Lindley

Sheridan Lindley attended the University of Oklahoma, where she graduated summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Economics and a minor in Spanish in 2012. Remaining at the University of Oklahoma for law school, she received her Juris Doctor with honors in 2016. While in law school, Ms. Lindley was a member of the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity and the Phi Delta Phi Legal Honor Society, and a volunteer for Legal Aid Services of Oklahoma and the Early Settlement Mediation Program. She was the recipient of the Academic Achievement Award (Amjur) in Evidence.

Ms. Lindley joined Barrow & Grimm shortly after graduating, and her practice is primarily focused in the areas of commercial and business litigation, healthcare litigation, and family law. She is licensed to practice in the state courts of Oklahoma, and is a member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, the Tulsa County Bar Association, and the TCBA Young Lawyers Division.
