

Andie B. Netherland is an associate with Barrow & Grimm, P.C. representing clients in the areas of business, tax, energy, and Indian law. Andie earned her Bachelor of Business Administration in Economics from the University of Mississippi in 2018. After graduation, she attended the University of Oklahoma College of Law. During her time at OU law, Andie served as Managing Editor of the American Indian Law Review, during which time her Note, The Disproportionate Effect on Native American Women of Extending the Federal Involuntary Manslaughter Act to Include a Woman's Conduct Against her Child in Utero: United States v. Flute, 45 AM. INDIAN L. REV. 191, was published. Andie also served on the Board of Advocates and received various recognitions, including Dean's List and Order of Solicitors. Prior to joining Barrow & Grimm, P.C. in 2023, she served as a law clerk in the Eastern District of Oklahoma for the Honorable Magistrate Judge Jason A. Robertson. Andie is a member of Oklahoma Bar Association and is admitted to practice law in the state courts of Oklahoma.