Anne S. Maguire

Forge Media · Tuesday, December 1st, 2015

Anne S. Maguire's practice encompasses a wide variety of business-related areas, including business transactions and business litigation, tribal litigation, and trust and estate litigation, estate planning, and appellate practice. Anne's experience includes complex case analysis, negotiation, and all phases of trial preparation, trials, and appeals. Drawing on this breadth of experience, Anne advises and assists on general corporate matters ranging across multiple industries, including real estate development, construction, healthcare, and energy.

Her extensive experience and achievements earned her the "Rising Star" designation by Super Lawyers Magazine continuously from 2019 to 2022.

Anne is admitted to the practice of law in the state courts of Oklahoma and Colorado; the United States District Courts for the Northern, Western, and Eastern Districts of Oklahoma; and the Tribal Courts of the Osage Nation, United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians in Oklahoma, and the Kiowa Indian Tribe of Oklahoma. Anne is based in Durango, Colorado, and divides her time between the firm's office there and its Tulsa office.

Anne earned her Juris Doctorate from the University of Oklahoma College of Law in 2012, where she served as a Research Editor for the American Indian Law Review, and earned the AmJur award in Agricultural Biotechnology. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in Letters, with a minor in Classical Culture, from the University of Oklahoma in 2008, and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Anne's professional memberships include the Oklahoma Bar Association, the Osage Nation Bar Association, and the Tulsa County Bar Association. She serves on the Professional Responsibility Tribunal of the Oklahoma Bar Association.

When not practicing law, Anne enjoys participating in all manner of outdoor activities with her husband and their dog.
