Jody graduated from the University of Oklahoma College of Law in 2013 where he was awarded the Order of the Barristers. While a law student he clerked for former Oklahoma Supreme Court Justice Tom J. Colbert, Oklahoma Court of Civil Appeals Judge Deborah Barnes, and United States District Court Judge Gregory K. Frizzell. In addition to his time with Barrow | Grimm, P.C., Jody has served as an assistant district attorney in Creek County, Oklahoma, and currently serves as a municipal judge for Sapulpa, Oklahoma. Jody is a fourth generation Oklahoma lawyer whose great-grandfather began his practice in Oklahoma shortly after Oklahoma's statehood. In addition to his work on behalf of Barrow | Grimm, P.C., Jody is a member of his family's law firm in Creek County. Jody's practice areas include business litigation, real estate, construction, family law, estate planning, and probate and trust administration.
