Barrow | Grimm

Attorneys at Law

John Wolfe

Forge Media · Monday, June 5th, 2017

John S. Wolfe is a shareholder in the firm's transactional practice group. His practice focuses on corporate and securities transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, tax, private equity investments, corporate finance, and corporate governance. John has experience advising in a broad range of sectors, including construction, healthcare, hospitality, manufacturing, oil and gas, and real estate. In addition to his corporate practice, John also practices in the area of estate planning and he regularly advises clients on estate and gift tax matters.

John is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma College of Law where he served as a Note Editor on the American Indian Law Review. After law school, John received a Master of Laws in Taxation from Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law in Chicago, Illinois. Prior to joining the firm, John worked as a tax consultant in the areas of state and local taxation and mergers and acquisitions in the McLean, Virginia office of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP.

John is admitted to practice before all Oklahoma state courts and is a member of the Tulsa County Bar Association, the Oklahoma Bar Association, the American Bar Association, and the Tulsa Estate Planning Forum.

Representative Experience

John regularly counsels clients in the following types of matters:

- Corporate finance, securities offerings, and sales and acquisitions of portfolio companies.
- Choice of entity and formation: S-corporations, C-corporations, LLCs, joint ventures, partnerships, and tax-exempt organizations.
- Real estate, including sales and acquisitions, financings, leases, and development.

Estate planning, including tax planning and business succession.

This entry was posted on Monday, June 5th, 2017 at 10:10 pm and is filed under
You can follow any responses to this entry through the Comments (RSS) feed. Both comments and pings are currently closed.